

Ariel Duris
Senior Vice President
& Account Executive
Financial Services Group &
Commercial Risk Solutions
Aon Corp.

Ariel is a Senior Vice President and Account Executive within Aon's Financial Services Group ("FSG") and Commercial Risk Solutions. In these dual roles, and as part of the Insurance Company Group ("ICG") within FSG, Ariel is responsible for serving and broking financial lines for some of Aon's largest insurance company clients, as well as managing the relationship and overall strategy for clients across all lines of coverage and products (Cyber, P&C, H&B, Reinsurance, etc.). Ariel is also involved in production of new business across all lines of coverage.

Ariel first began working in the insurance industry in 2002. He moved from Chicago to Denver in 2004 to join ICG and has remained focused on the insurance company space since then. He became the ICG team leader from 2011 to 2018 before transitioning to a dual broker/account executive role.

Ariel earned a finance degree from the Brigham Young University, (2001), his ARM (Associate Risk Management) designation, (2004), his RPLU (Registered Professional Liability Underwriter) designation, (2006) and his CPCU (Chartered Property & Casualty Underwriter) designation, (2009).
