

Jasmin J. Hurley
Associate
Porter Wright Morris & Arthur LLP

Jasmin is an associate in the firm's Corporate Department where she focuses on intellectual property and corporate and business matters. She represents clients across many industries, including food and beverage, health care, media and technology. She has experience in advising startup and small businesses to large private companies regarding entity structure, formation, governance and financing, as well as preparation of business and commercial documents. Jasmin also brings significant experience in advising clients on the development and security of IP, including copyright and trademark registration, trademark prosecution, licensing, purchasing, transfers and commercialization. She assists with IP-related aspects of mergers and acquisitions. Finally, Jasmin advises women-, minority and veteran-owned businesses regarding business certification at the local, state and national levels, and provides support during the application process.

During law school, Jasmin served as a judicial extern for the Honorable Thomas M. Rose and Magistrate Judge Michael J. Newman, of the Southern District of Ohio, Western Division.

Prior to attending law school, Jasmin worked in health and safety and business development for a local industrial cleaning company. A Veteran of the U.S. Army, she held leadership roles in the Military Police as Platoon Leader, Executive Officer, and Battalion Plans Officer. She is a combat Veteran and a Bronze Star recipient.