Cimarron Insurance Company

Paul Halter is the President, Chief Executive Officer and Director for Cimarron Underwriters, LLC, Cimarron Brokerage Company, LLC and Cimarron Insurance Company, Inc. (Demotech Rating of A). Mr. Halter began his career in 1981 in his father's independent insurance agency in Bamberg, South Carolina. He eventually joined the insurer ranks with Crum & Forster Personal Insurance as field sales manager for the Carolinas. He joined Marsh & McLennan, Inc. as AVP for Private Client Services in the Carolinas. He left Marsh to lead John & Higgins' Private Client Services nationally. In 1994 he formed Commerce Casualty Group, Inc. with independent insurance agents in the Carolinas to write workers' compensation insurance to be reinsured by Commerce Casualty Insurance Company, Inc., a Bermuda based reinsurance captive. From 2005 until 2007, Mr. Halter was President and Chief Operating Officer of Guarantee Insurance Company, Inc., its only profitable years. The company moved from Charlotte, NC to Ft. Lauderdale, Florida in late 2007 after which Mr. Halter resigned. In 2010, Mr. Halter joined Patriot Underwriters, Inc. as a regional vice president in a newly created branch office in Charlotte, NC. Ultimately, he became Chief Executive Office of Patriot Underwriters, Inc. until he resigned his position after the company went public over concerns with the direction of the company. On November 30, 2017, Paul Halter and Jeff Roschman purchased ProSelect National Insurance Company, Inc. The name was changed to the company's original name when organized in 1947, to Cimarron Insurance Company, Inc. Cimarron offers workers' compensation in 24 states currently and is licensed in 33 for most property and casualty lines of business. The company continues to expand its geographic foot print and will introduce general liability, large deductible workers' compensation and excess workers' compensation in 2019.

Paul is a Certified Insurance Counselor (CIC), Certified Risk Manager (CRM) and a Charter Property and Casualty Underwriter (CPCU).
